EXECUTIVE PROTECTION

Diplomatic Tactical Services Inc. has the experience to provide you with a "low key", highly effective protection package. As a business services provider, we understand our client's special need to feel secure without having personal security become an issue.

Diplomatic Tactical Services Inc. employs fully licensed private investigators and security specialists. Our investigators/security specialists have the discipline and maturity to provide the personal protection needed without interfering in the client's daily routine. We do not employ 6'6" former "WWF wrestlers" rather, highly qualified individuals with the low-key approach to blend in with your Management team.

Diplomatic Tactical Services Inc. executive protection services include:

Physical site assessment: We will review your business location and residence to determine the most likely threats and design mitigation for those threats.

Counterpart Assessment: You can count on us if you are involved in union negotiations, a complicated business transaction, conducting an annual meeting, the victim of terrorist threats or are a potential target of economic kidnapping. Constantly assessing and reassessing the threat will provide you with the correct level of protection at all times.

Physical Security Measures: We don't supply equipment however, Diplomatic Tactical Services Inc can suggest for you a physical equipment plan rather than sell you products you may not need.

Bodyguard Services: Bodyguards are essential to allowing a potential target the freedom of mobility and security simultaneously. A properly assessed threat level will ensure a properly staffed protection force.
